

Wikipedia Trivia: Questions, Answers, and Facts Printable Trivia Pack

Wikipedia trivia starts with an unusual success story: a free online encyclopedia launched in 2001 by Jimmy Wales and Larry Sanger that grew through open collaboration among volunteer editors. Hosted since 2003 by the Wikimedia Foundation, the nonprofit-backed platform has become a global reference pointâ making its history, quirks, and behind-the-scenes details especially rich ground for easy, funny, and surprisingly hard trivia.

HARD WIKIPEDIA TRIVIA

1. Before Wikipedia settled on its .org home, what original domain name did the project use?

Answer: www.wikipedia.com

2. Pin down the date: when was the first edit to Wikipedia made shortly after the site went live?

Answer: January 16, 2001

3. Before the Wikimedia Foundation became Wikipediaâ s nonprofit host, Jimmy Wales was associated with which web company?

Answer: Bomis

4. In Wikipediaâ s early period, what formal role did Larry Sanger hold?

Answer: editor-in-chief

5. What is the founding date of the Wikimedia Foundation, the nonprofit that hosts Wikipedia?

Answer: June 20, 2003

6. Which city is home to the Wikimedia Foundation, Wikipediaâ s nonprofit host?

Answer: San Francisco

7. The English Wikipedia hit the 1 million article mark in what year?

Answer: 2006

8. July was the month, but what was the year when the English Wikipedia reached 4 million articles?

Answer: 2012

9. When the English Wikipedia passed 5 million articles in November, what year was it?

Answer: 2015

10. In January of which year did the English Wikipedia cross the 6 million article threshold?

Answer: 2020

11. On the English Wikipedia, what is the formal name of the body that handles conduct disputes?

Answer: Arbitration Committee

12. Veteran editors often shorten the English Wikipedia's Arbitration Committee to what nickname?

Answer: ArbCom

13. Larry Sanger announced his departure from active involvement in Wikipedia in which year?

Answer: 2002

14. Which pair of non-English editions were among Wikipedia's first, both launching in 2001?

Answer: German and Catalan

FUNNY WIKIPEDIA TRIVIA

1. On Wikipedia, what color of link is basically the site's way of saying, "This page is still imaginary"?

Answer: A red link usually means the linked page does not exist yet.

2. Which memorable shortcut is Wikipedia's catch-all reminder that the encyclopedia is not everything under the sun?

Answer: WP:NOT

3. True or false: Wikipedia really has an advice page called "Don't panic."?

Answer: True

4. What is the title of Wikipedia's essay that gently tells editors the clock is not chasing them?

Answer: There is no deadline

5. What charming nickname does Wikipedia use for an editor who quietly fixes typos like a tiny cleanup wizard?

Answer: wikignome

6. When two editors keep undoing each other over and over, what battle-flavored term does Wikipedia use?

Answer: edit war

7. What is Wikipedia's common name for an automated program that makes edits without needing coffee breaks?

Answer: bot

8. Which abbreviation names Wikipedia's deletion discussion venue "Articles for deletion"?

Answer: AfD

9. What does Wikipedia call a very short article that is basically a sandwich short of a full lunch?

Answer: stub

10. If a page is locked down so most users can't edit it, what is that page called?

Answer: protected page

11. Which Wikipedia page feed do anti-vandalism patrollers watch like neighborhood squirrels on espresso?

Answer: Recent Changes

12. What phrase can appear in Wikipedia's warning template when editors are arguing over whether an article is staying impartial?

Answer: neutrality is disputed

13. Which shortcut encourages editors to go ahead and make constructive changes instead of waiting for a drumroll?

Answer: WP:BOLD

FUN WIKIPEDIA TRIVIA

1. What Hawaiian phrase gave Wikipedia its speedy-sounding name?

Answer: wiki wiki

2. Which slogan once appeared on the English Wikipedia main page: 'The Free Encyclopedia' or 'The Infinite Library'?

Answer: The Free Encyclopedia

3. If Wikipedia's main page wants to tempt you with a quirky factoid, which section title does that job?

Answer: Did you know ...

4. Which main page section on Wikipedia highlights anniversaries of notable events?

Answer: On this day

5. Where on Wikipedia's main page would you look for current-events updates?

Answer: In the news

6. What is the regular main page spotlight called when Wikipedia puts one article center stage?

Answer: Today's featured article

7. Some top Wikipedia articles wear which badge of honor?

Answer: bronze star

8. Which button is perfect for readers who want Wikipedia to surprise them with whatever comes next?

Answer: Random article

9. True or false: Wikipedia's globe logo uses characters from just one alphabet.?

Answer: False

10. When editing Wikipedia, what punctuation is often used to make links?

Answer: square brackets

11. What's the charming name of the page that tells Wikipedia editors how to behave?

Answer: Wikiquote

12. What are Wikipedia's humorous community awards called?

Answer: barnstars

13. What name does Wikipedia use for its annual editing competitions?

Answer: edit-a-thons

WIKIPEDIA FAMILY TRIVIA

1. What project came before Wikipedia?

Answer: Nupedia

2. Before Wikipedia existed, Nupedia used what kind of review system?

Answer: a traditional peer-review process

3. What is Wikipedia's mascot/logo symbol called?

Answer: the globe puzzle logo

4. Look at the top of the Wikipedia logo: what kind of pieces are missing?

Answer: puzzle pieces

5. Wikipedia can be read in about how many languages?

Answer: hundreds of languages

6. True or false: All language editions of Wikipedia are run as one single wiki.?

Answer: False

7. Which sister project is known as Wikimedia Commons?

Answer: Wikimedia Commons

8. Which sister project shares dictionary-style words and meanings?

Answer: Wiktionary

9. If you wanted a collection of quotations on a sister project, which one would you visit?

Answer: Wikiquote

10. Which sister project has the name that sounds like a shelf of learning books?

Answer: Wikibooks

11. Which sister project would you pick from this list: Wikisource, Wikinews, or Wikivoyage?

Answer: Wikisource

12. Which sister project has 'news' right in its name?

Answer: Wikinews

EASY WIKIPEDIA TRIVIA

1. On what date was Wikipedia launched?

Answer: January 15, 2001

2. Which co-founder of Wikipedia has the first name Jimmy?

Answer: Jimmy Wales

3. Which co-founder of Wikipedia has the last name Sanger?

Answer: Larry Sanger

4. What kind of website is Wikipedia?

Answer: A free online encyclopedia

5. Who writes and edits Wikipedia articles?

Answer: Volunteers

6. What are people who edit Wikipedia commonly called?

Answer: Wikipedians

7. Since 2003, what foundation has hosted Wikipedia?

Answer: The Wikimedia Foundation

8. What kind of organization is the Wikimedia Foundation?

Answer: A nonprofit organization

9. What is the name of the wiki software Wikipedia uses?

Answer: MediaWiki

10. Wikipedia is funded mainly by what source?

Answer: Donations from readers

11. What is the English-language version of Wikipedia called?

Answer: The English Wikipedia

12. What do you usually use to read Wikipedia on the internet?

Answer: A web browser

13. Wikipedia is especially known for what approach to building articles?

Answer: Open collaboration

Source: <https://quizhoot.com/trivia/wikipedia-trivia>