Ready? Let's jump in!

My experience with these questions...

So here's the thing. I would always be wanting to cut through the silence at the dinner table... Or when we had a night out. In particular, it was with family or with kids.

I started to look into conversation starters and icebreakers. And I would like to think that I became quite the expert on it. Although, I want to ask unique questions to those around me.

I mean, who really wants to hear a question that sounds like a job interview? NOT me!

I made these and I hope that you like them. Give them a shot the next time you hear unbreakable silence.
